Dear Simon,

Appreciation

It has now been a week or so after the 2007 SAROC annual dinner which you have so successfully carried on our behalf and yet the compliments are still flowing in. The event has indeed left many who have attended wanting more of the same.

Obviously, many of these happy little moments that you have created have come back in the form of compliments to the 2007 SAROC committee. For this, the committee feels that it is only right that you are properly acknowledged for the generosity of your sacrifice and the flair with which you have so easily captured our thrill. I am sure this event will be remembered for a long time and will be held up as the benchmark event.

As for us, we are just grateful that you have found time from your busy schedule and taken the trouble to help us make the event so much more fun and meaningful. On behalf of the SAROC committee, please accept our little token of appreciation.

Thank you and warm wishes for the merry season.

Choo Leong Boon
Chairman SAROC
